

Principles and Guidelines for Collaborative Family Law

II. No Court or Other Intervention

- We agree to give full, honest, and open disclosure of all information, whether requested or not.
- We agree to engage in informal discussions and conferences to settle all marital dissolution issues.
- We agree to direct all attorneys and all other experts we retain or involve, to work in a cooperative effort to resolve issues without resort to adversarial court proceedings or any other any other external decision-making processes, except as we may agree upon.
- We commit ourselves to settling our case without court intervention.